1. Attend classes and take examinations according to the published teaching and exam schedule.

2. Submit proof of meeting the required IT proficiency upon admission and during the course of study, as well as proof of meeting the foreign language proficiency requirement for eligibility to take English for Specific Purposes 1 and Applied Informatics in the training program.

- Students must submit certificates proving they have met the IT and foreign language entry requirements, as well as the IT proficiency during the course of study, via the Estudent.hub.edu.vn system from the 1st to the 20th of each month. Students are responsible for the validity of the submitted certificates. The Office of Academic Affairs will verify the documents and officially recognize the students' qualifications before the 30th of each month.
- Students who either pass the English placement test or have submitted valid certificates meeting the English and IT proficiency requirements (only once) on the system will automatically be considered eligible to enroll in English for Specific Purposes 1 and Applied Informatics in the training program.
- Students who complete and submit their entry-level certificates after the designated deadlines will not be allowed to register for English for Specific Purposes 1 and Applied Informatics in that semester/registration period, and must wait until the following semester(s) offered by the university.
